1. David said, "God, You have made me in an amazing way. What You have done is wonderful." It's going to take boldness to believe that you're amazing, you're marvelous, you're wonderfully made. If you're going to become who you were created to be, you're going to have to get in agreement with God.	L G T F
2. We are justified by grace alone, through faith alone, in Christ alone.	L G T F
3. You are not only responsible for what you say, but also for what you do not say.	L G T F
4. You say that the sins which we commit every day offend God, and therefore we are not saints. To this I reply: Mother love is stronger than the filth and scabiness on a child, and so the love of God toward us is stronger than the dirt that clings to us. Accordingly, although we are sinners, we do not lose our filial relation on account of our filthiness, nor do we fall from grace on account of our sin.	L G T F
5. God cannot release His peace if I don't release my pride.	L G T F
6. Thus first of all in His own person He sanctified, restored, and blessed human nature.	L G T F
7. God calls those things which do not exist as though they did. He does this with the budding virtues in our heart. He calls them forth when He sees their early development in our spirit, long before they exist and are seen by others.	L G T F
8. A true Lutheran relies on God's Word and would not worry about it even if the whole world mocked and despised him for it. He does not consider the world an authority in religious matters. He rests his faith on higher authority.	L G T F
9. Christ Jesus took 33 years of His life on earth to bear our sin and be our Savior.	L G T F
10. To be a Christian without prayer is no more possible than to be alive without breathing.	L G T F
11. To experience God's promise, you have to embrace His process.	L G T F
12. The principle point in the doctrine of free will is that the human will of its own powers cannot without the Holy Spirit initiate inner spiritual impulses. It cannot perform the inner obedience of the heart; nor can it persevere in, accomplish, and complete a course of action which has been undertaken.	L G T F
13. If we are unable to speak, then He speaks. If we with out wisdom and with out power are at an end, then He speaks His great Word to us: "Behold, I am with you always, until the end og the age!"	L G T F
